After graduating from college, I realized that this is not a job where I want to spend myself.

Looking at my programming friends, I decided to try it myself.

I completed the Front end development course at Code Academy with a grade of 8.

Now, after 8 months i have great knowledge of HTML and CSS, am still learning, but i am very good at it. Also, i use JavaScript, and i am between beginner and intermediate level.

I work with JSON, AJAX and jQuery, and i am going to study React and Angular.
